The Letters

At evening, when the lamps are lit,
And fires are burning clear and bright,
Our mother says, "Come now, and help
To get the letters off tonight."

We are her letters, Jean and I,
And Coralie and little Paul.
She always fixes him the first,
'Cos he's the smallest of us all.

First she puts on our envelopes,
These are our nighties long and white;
And then she stamps each with a kiss,
And buttons us, and seals us tight.

And next we slip between the sheets,
They are the mailbags, big and wide;
And all the letters shut their eyes,
As soon as they are safe inside.

And soon they're traveling thro' the night,
To Fairy-land so dim, and then,
When morning comes with golden light,
They all come traveling back again.

A Birthday Party

For Our Readers

U. S. 5c No. 458 Cat. $1.50

Here Is Our Story

We have been saving a large part of a coil of this stamp, the 5c blue, coil, perforated 10 vertically, issued in 1914. Scott prices it at $1.50 per copy and it seems to be a stamp well worth picking up. The stamps are all mint copies and should be big bargains for any collector at 50 to 75c each. We have been holding this lot for some time, hoping for a bright idea as to how to dispose of this coil and it has just occurred to us that we should do well to share it with our readers. Therefore we are making the following offer.

We want new names on our subscription list. Our price is but 25c per year and at this figure we do not and can not offer fancy premiums. You pay for the paper and get more than your moneys worth. You do not have to pay a dollar and get a trick packet thrown in for half your money. Therefore we propose to permit any of our readers to purchase a single copy or a pair of these stamps at 25c per stamp under the following conditions only.

Send us 25c for a new subscription for a friend collector and you can have a copy of this 5c coil for only 25 cents, one sixth catalog. You can get a quarter and a name and address from the first friend collector that you meet by simply asking him for it, add your own quarter and send us 50c for the stamp and for the paper one year to the friend.

If you want a pair of the stamps which Scotts Specialized catalog prices at $4.00 you must send us two subscriptions for one year each and two of your own quarters, making $1.00 in all.

A $7.50 Pair for Only 50 Cents

Maybe you will be lucky. Anyhow, after every 17th stamp in a coil there is the plate line. To those who send for pairs by sending us two subscriptions we will give this plate line pair as we come to it in tearing up the coil. If your letter reaches us as we are at the coil pair in the coil, you get the coil pair, catalogued at $7.50. In order that we may convince every one of our readers that this offer is on the level, we will print the names of the lucky people who are fortunate enough to receive these coil pairs.

Remember that this offer is for new names on our subscription list only, renewals will not be counted or accepted on this offer.

These stamps should be snapped up quick. Do not delay, get that subscription at once and get your single or pair before they are all gone.

Yes, you can have a strip of three or four or more on the same terms, simply send 25c for each new subscription and add 25c for each stamp that you want. There is no limit to how long a strip you can get except the length of the coil.

The Lure of Stamp Collecting

By N. R. Hoover

IT'S a far cry from the entertaining concert which has just been completed, to what some folks may think is a dry talk on Stamps, but actually I want to tell you that this evening I'm going to say something that can be very, very interesting to the great majority of my unseen audience. It is going to be interesting because there's money in it for you and you don't have to enter a contest or do any heavy thinking or do any work except some careful searching and then write a letter.

Here's how:

Have you any old letters around the house, in the attic or down in the basement, or in a box tucked back in some dark closet shelf? Any love letters of your own, or of your parents, of long ago? Any old documents? Any old photographs of Civil War time?

If you have, and they contain old postage or revenue stamps, you may have money in your possession of which you had never given previous thought.

As I explained in the last talk, old stamps which are comparatively scarce, are much sought after by postage stamp collectors. One never knows, in the old stamps he or she may have on ancient letters, how valuable they are.

The age of a stamp doesn't make its value. There is a 3 cent stamp put out during the Civil War which you can buy for one cent each because millions of them were used and thousands have been recovered from old mail; there is a 10-cent stamp issued as late as 1920 which would cost you $150.00 if you wanted it. So you see age isn't the only gauge in determining value.

This is the Second of a Series of Radio Talks given over Radio Station WGBS, New York City on Monday Evening, October 6, 1930, at 5:15 P. M. by N. R. Hoover.

Similar talks will be given every other Monday during the Fall and Winter. Next talk, November 3, 1930. Tune in.

I mention this so you will not be deceived into thinking, when you look for them, that every postage stamp, which is of a different appearance from that of those we see on our mail today, is of great value.

Actually it is the kind of thing which only an expert could tell. To illustrate this point I can cite a certain issue.

Early in our days of postage stamps we were using a set that had been with us for some time. In those days they were printed by private companies, not as now by the Government's Engraving and Printing plant at Washington. For one month only, during August of that year, the printing of the entire issue from the 1 cent up, was turned over to another company. In order to distinguish between the two sets of printings, the Post Office Department instructed the new company to put an infinitesimal key-mark on each stamp, so small only a magnifying glass would detect it. The stamps printed in August are very much more scarce than the balance of the issue. For instance the 12 cent of August sells today for $3500.00, while the same stamp from the balance of that run sells for $15.00. That illustrates why one who makes no study of stamps cannot tell which are the valuable ones.

I think you would be interested in hearing of some valuable finds in these envelopes with old stamps on them.

The most recent striking find in a stamp of value was that of Miss Natalia Sumner Lincoln of Washington, D. C. Miss Lincoln is a writer of detective fiction, incidentally browsing through some old papers that had belonged to her father, she found a perfect copy of the 10-cent James M. Buchanan, Baltimore, Md., provisional of 1845, bluish paper on an envelope, also in excellent condition. The letter had been addressed to Miss Lincoln's grandfather, Nathan Smith Lincoln, by his uncle who in the letter told his nephew he was sorry he could not attend the young man's graduation exercises at Dartmouth College. These Buchanan provisionals are very scarce. Miss Lincoln sold that envelope and stamp for exactly $10,000.00, it now being in the collection of Mr. A. H. Caspary. The incident occurred in March of this year, only a short time ago.

Now, after you have digested that one, may I tell you the story of Mr. E. D. Hemingway of Philadelphia, who, since 1905, has been selling envelopes and stamps from a lot he bought for $26.00. A firm of bankers was moving its offices. After taking away their old books and papers they left behind a vast quantity of letters which they told the janitor of the building to throw in the waste. He sold the waste-paper to this man Hemingway. The latter, realizing, after he had examined the pile, that he might have something worthwhile, sold the contents of the letters from famous persons from 1812, down to date in these files to the University of Pennsylvania, and the envelopes with stamps on them to stamp collectors. Mr. Chas. J. Phillips says he was told that Mr. Hemingway recently sold the last of the big accumulation and the total received was $70,000.00 on an original investment of $26.00. It is almost unbelievable.

Here is another true tale:

A block of 27 Pan American, 1901 stamps, printed in two colors as some of you old listeners may recall, but a few sheets of which had been printed with the center color upside down in error, was offered at the rate of $3.00 each to Stanley Gibbons, Ltd., in New York, stamp dealers. The proprietor, fearful that there would be plenty more of the same error offered, refused them. Today that stamp sells for $250.00 and there are few offered.

How's this one:

Major Cleveland H. Bandholtz was once passing through an old office building in Boston, and noticed a partition was being torn out of one of the offices. Some dust-covered boxes had been moved and two old envelopes containing the 10-cent 1847 stamp had fallen on the floor, which envelopes he saw. It suggested a find and he asked permission to go thru the boxes. The result of his search yielded almost 600 copies of this 10-cent 1847 alone, not to mention numerous envelopes containing more recent but not more valuable stamps. This 10-cent 1847 stamp sells today for $35.00, so this find if turned into cash now would have yielded $21,000.00 approximately.

About 15 years ago stamp dealers in New York were being offered from a man in New Orleans, lots containing 100 copies of the rather common 3-cent 1851 U. S. stamp, all torn from envelopes. It excited the interest of Mr. E. B. Power, at present a retired stamp dealer, but active then. If so many were coming from one man, there must have been a recently-acquired source of supply discovered down South. He hopped a train for New Orleans, found his man, and made a deal. Doing this stopped the destruction of much value in that those remaining would not thereafter be torn from their envelopes but would remain intact as "entire covers", as it is expressed philatelically. This lot was contained in eleven large packing cases. There were many common stamps among them but included in this lot was the first copy of the famous Confederate Tuscumbia, Ala., so seldom offered no price appears in the catalog. If it should be offered it would doubtless bring $15,000.00, also a quarter of the 12-cent stamp of 1851, which did postal duty for 3 cents, something quaint and unusual, and permissible in those days, and quoted at $1,250.00.

Here's another one:

My friend, Mr. W. W. McLaren, of Cleveland, Ohio, this summer told me an interesting story. He is a stamp collector looking for "covers", that is envelopes with old stamps on them. In fact he makes it his business, buying covers from old folks or businesses with large accumulations of old mail. In motoring thru the western part of Ohio he passed thru a town, in the business district of which was situated a wonderful example of an old-fashioned home, built, to judge from its appearance, perhaps 100 years ago. He inquired in the town as to the name of the occupant and was told that the owner and resident was a maiden lady in her 70's who lived the life of a recluse and would probably throw him out when he made known his mission. Nothing daunted, he knocked at the colonial-fronted house. True enough, a delightful specimen of the type of lady of years ago, immaculately but tastefully dressed in black, greeted him. He had the good judgment to mention the townsman's name to whom he had spoken. She knew the townsman and this was the open sesame for my friend. He asked her if she had any old letters tucked away in trunks in the attic. After telling him that hardly a Sunday afternoon of a clear day went by but that someone stopped at her home asking the same question, but because he had so adroitly mentioned this townsman's name implying friendship with him, she consented to let him look at some old letters she had, altho she had refused scores of other applicants. My friend told me that the finds he got in the 75 or so letters were so good he was constrained to go back to her and increase his original payment of $30.00 to $50.00. He got one envelope that he sold for $40.00 and several for $15.00. His total receipts for the lot was about $220.00 and they would have been more but for frayed edges on some of the envelopes, due to the careless opening of them.

Do you get the point from these examples of finds? Often unsuspecting we are keeping in out-of-the-way spots up in the attic or down in the basement, or in a corner of a closet, things in old covers that may be worth much to us. While the purpose of these talks on the air is to interest in the hobby those not following stamp collecting, and I do not often buy lots that turn up such as I describe, I shall be glad to advise any of you if you have old envelopes with stamps on them. Write me in care of this station telling me what you have and I'll advise you how you can turn them into money.

Getting back to the original idea of interesting you in stamps I want to make a proposition to you: Send me your name and address and I will send you at absolutely no cost an envelope containing some used postage stamps with an explanation as to how to get started on this interesting hobby. The long winter evenings are just around the corner. There is absolutely no recreation equal to stamp collecting to while away the time. And when it may in time turn out to be profitable, see how it can be doubly advantageous to you.

WARREN STAMP CLUB ANNIVERSARY

The Warren (Ohio) Stamp Club will hold its fifth anniversary meeting on November 12th. This club is Branch No. 10 of the Society of Philatelic Americans.

Elaborate plans are being made to make this anniversary meeting one long to be remembered by those who attend. Arrangements are being made to have some interesting talks by capable speakers.

Members of the Warren Club are L. L. Kessler, president; Z. Z. Moran, vice president; F. L. Never, secretary-treasurer; Ted Hillman, sales manager and auctioneer; J. E. Parker, publicity manager. Other members are C. Oliphant, H. R. Marlow, John Contis and Mrs. H. Kessler.

Regular meetings of the Club are held on the second and fourth Wednesday of each month at 8 p. m. at the meeting rooms, 260 East Market Street, Warren, Ohio.

STAMP EXHIBIT AND JUNIOR CONTEST AT BRIDGEPORT

The Bridgeport (Conn.) Philatelic Club will hold its third annual Stamp Exhibit and Junior Contest at the Public Library from Nov. 4th to 6th, 1930. Started three years ago, this exhibit has proven so popular that the Library Officials have asked us to repeat it each year. Out of all the various exhibits and affairs held at the library each year, the Philatelic Exhibit has always drawn the largest crowds.

The most popular feature of this exhibit is the junior contest for the school clubs of the city. There are about ten clubs and competition is keen. The contest this year will be for the fifty (more or less) most attractive stamps which may be ship, animal, scenic, rulers or any combination and the best selection of covers which may be Air Mails, First Day, Dedications, etc. Entries are judged on the basis of originality and neatness of mounting and the selection and condition of the stamps. A prize is given to the winner of each school and a club prize is given to the club making the best showing as a unit.

Last year we had over eighty entries and we expect over a hundred this year. Standard size mounts, 12x22 inches are furnished free by the club to all contestants and prizes are donated by the members. The Library furnishes the frames and cases and the newspapers give us lots of publicity. So, all in all, we do have a right bang-up exhibit. It brings out some three or four thousand visitors, makes about a dozen or more new collectors, adds a few members to our club and gives our glorious hobby another boost along the bright highway to success.

Yours truly,
Fred J. Wieler,
President
Bridgeport Philatelic Club.

WHAT IS THERE IN NUMBERS?

The Marks Stamp Company Emco Monthly Journal has a very interesting review of a couple Netherlands issues in reference to numbers of stamps issued and catalog values based on these numbers. The item is well worth study and consideration by every collector.

In summing up the matter the Emco Monthly Bulletin says: "We see there is something in numbers after all—and that's why their publication is of value as they have a bearing on the correct prices of stamps."

Timely, authentic and complete information on new issues, unlisted varieties, projected philatelic events, etc., is the aim of this department. ALGERIA

The handsome 10fr red brown commemorative issued during the International Philatelic Exhibition here this summer is likely to be a scarcer stamp than ever. Stamp Collectors Fortnightly reports an official statement that the remainder of these, 29,569 copies, were destroyed by fire in August. This is Scott's No. 77 by the advance sheets.

BRITISH SOLOMAN ISLANDS

Mr. Daniel Jacoby tells us that there will be a new value added to the current postage series. This will be a 4½p value in brown, of the Type A3 "Postage-Revenue" inscription.

BELGIUM

Mr. Rene Boon recently sent us samples of the new booklets of stamps containing commercial advertising. We have at hand one booklet containing twenty of the 35c green, Type A63, and another book containing twenty of the 60c rose, same type. The advertising consists of two blanks the same size as the stamp, these being in pairs on every other pane of stamps. Intermediate panes are of six regular stamps. Interleaves instead of being waxed paper as in our own are white and bear pictures in color and descriptions of various General Motors vehicles. The blanks referred to above contain various advertisements, from soothing syrup to loud speakers. It makes a rather attractive booklet, and is an idea which if followed out in this country would go far to wipe out our fancy postal deficit every year. Certainly a better idea than raising the postal rates.

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

Mr. George S. Chapman has sent us one of the first copies of the new air mail series. The type is very like the last series, Type AP-1, but has the value shown in words as well as figures in the base panel. In addition there are some small changes in design, the most noticeable being the extension of the scrolls bearing the words "CORREO" and "AEREO" so that their outer ends curl around and show in front of the foliate ornaments. The shading at the outer ends of these scrolls has been much reduced. The type used in printing the word "centavos" in the original issue has been changed. The new letters are rounder and thinner. These are in addition of course to the radical color changes. The old 15c was a bright scarlet while this one is a light blue-green. Unwmkd. perf. 11½.

15c light blue green.

The other values: 10, 20, 30c have not yet appeared but are expected very soon.

Mr. Chapman also tells us that the Red Cross set of four values for relief of the hurricane victims should be obtainable about Oct. 25th. These we mentioned in a recent issue, and they are certainly a worthy investment from a humanitarian standpoint as well as philatelic.

ECUADOR

Whitfield King & Co., report that they have received two more values in the recently chronicled Centenary issue. These are the 2 sucre value bearing a portrait of Sucre himself, and the 5s showing a likeness of Bolivar. Both are of the large upright format similar to the 5c and 20c. The 1s and 10s values, as well as a corresponding series of official stamps, are not ready for issue.

"ZEPPELIN-1930" in red. There were just 50,000 of these so treated to frank mail carried on the Graf Zeppelin on her trip from Helsingfors to Friedrichshafen. This card is postmarked Sept. 23, and backstamped Sept. 25, at the German airport. It is also reported that one stamp in each sheet of the five hundred had an error in that the date read "1830" in the overprint.

HONDURAS

Whitfield King & Co., report the appearance of three new commemoratives marking the 100th anniversary of the press in that country. These are of a distinct design, large in size and of rather poor execution.

2c red
2c blue
2c brown orange

HUNGARY

The recently forecast issue of airport stamps should be available at any time, as they were scheduled for issuance the last of September. Theodore Champion tells us this. Values will be 4f, 1, 2, 5p.

INDIA

Philatelic Gossip quotes Stamp Collecting in saying that there will be a commemorative series issued next February on the formal dedication of New Delhi. Scenes in this new capital city will be shown on the different values, which will be ¼, ½, 1, 2, 3 annas and 1 rupee. They are to be good for postage for a period of one month only. Commemoratives are common, but coming from a conservative country like this they are indeed a novelty. It is a new departure in their policy.

INDIA-Travancore

Gibbons Stamp Monthly reports that the 4ch official, No. 119, has appeared with the overprint in red instead of black. Only one hundred sheets were so treated, which should make it rather good.

ITALY

The Lesgor News Reel states that Italy will continue her voluminous contributions to philately with a series of six commemoratives honoring the VII centenary of St. Anthony of Padua. This will be issued early in 1931 and will consist of these values: 20, 25, 30, 50, 75c, and 1.25L. We must confess that we like the Italian commemoratives for their beauty, but we could easily restrain our grief if she would be a little more stingy in the number of issues.

LUNDY

Amusing as may be the quaint puffin stamps of this minute island, A. C. Roessler gives us reason to think a little more seriously of them. In the recent court wrangle in England the lawyers representing Mr. Harmon (the owner of the island) pointed out the fact that it did not belong to the known territories of Great Britain—no taxes were ever collected there, no registry of births or deaths or marriages has ever been kept. Not being subject to those laws and levies it could not be termed a part of the British Empire. For all we can see to the contrary Mr. Harmon may yet be king in his own name of a kingdom three miles long and half a mile wide! As for the validity of the stamps, they certainly had more reason for being than some Colonials we could name, issued in long elaborate sets for remote islands where only a handful of white people dwell. The great difference is of course, that the government issued those, which in itself authenticated them, regardless of their postal uselessness.

MEXICO

Lesgor & Reel have sent us a new value in the 1929-30 ordinary air mail set. This is rouletted 13½ on paper bearing the same watermark (No. 156).

AP3 15c brown rose.

They also submit copies of two revolutionary stamps issued in 1928, but hitherto unlisted. These are of the same design, typographed on smooth white paper, perf. 12.

10c claret, light blue and black
20c claret, light blue and black.

Whitfield King & Co., tell us that the 70c official air mail, reported as entirely sold out, is still in use, but that all such officials are no longer obtainable in mint condition by the public. Their use is restricted to those government persons authorized to use them. They were on sale to the public for eight days only in order to give collectors a chance. After that, sales were shut off entirely.

The 5c and 15c Carranza air mails overprinted "Habilitado 1930" which we chronicled last month were to meet an emergency demand caused by the lowering of the air rates to the U. S. from 20c to 15c. This change occurred September 1st, and the overprints appeared soon afterwards.

Champions Monthly Bulletin states that the overprinting of the entire Carranza set is likely, these to have been issued on the inauguration of the air port at Mexico City on Sept. 16th.

NETHERLANDS

Gibbons Stamp Monthly chronicles the appearance of the current 5c and 6c (No. 185-6) in different shades from the originals:

A23 5c blue green
A23 6c bright red-brown.

In our September 20, issue we described the new type of synopated perforation employed on some values for use in vending machines. Champions Monthly Bulletin lists the following values as having appeared to date: 1½c, 5c, 6c, 12½c. These will probably be cataloged as a separate issue later on.

NEW ZEALAND and DEPENDENCIES

Philatelic Gossip reports that the 1930 Charity stamp will appear early next month. The 1929 one, No. 251, was difficult to secure, and is unobtainable in that island now except thru dealers.

It is also proposed to do away with the separate pictorial issues of Raratonga, Penrhyn and Aitutaki and replace them with one general issue inscribed Cook Islands. Niue would probably retain its present issue as it is under an independent administration.

NORTH BORNEO

Gibbons Stamp Monthly mentions that the 16c current series postage stamp, No. 176, has appeared in a very different shade, being now a pale brown instead of the former orange brown.

PAPUA

According to a report from Leslie Boone, three new provisional air mail stamps were due to have been issued Sept. 15th. These are the current postage values overprinted with an airplane and the words "AIR MAIL" in red. The 3d, 6d and 1sh are listed. These are to be used on mail to be sent over Australian air lines.

PARAGUAY

Whitfield King & Co. list one color change and one additional value in the current ordinary postage series.

A47 2c orange red
A47 10c magenta.

POLAND

Gibbons Stamp Monthly tell us that in November there will be a short commemorative set of four values in honor of the 1830 revolution. Stamps of 5, 10, 15, 25 gr will comprise the series.

RODI (Aegean Islands)

The Lesgor News Reel reports the entire 1929 series (No. 653-661) overprinted "XXI Congresso Idrologico".

ROUMANIA

Whitfield King & Co. give us more news on the new Carol set. They report that the first of the series has already appeared, and that the set when complete will comprise a 16 lei and a 20 lei stamp and possibly higher values. Those already issued are:

3 lei carmine (Portrait of Carol)
6 lei red brown (Portrait of Carol)

The Lesgor News Reel further announces that at the proposed date of Carol's coronation next March, there will be still another set of three values issued bearing a coat of arms and allegorical designs in addition to the King's portrait. It is possible that there may be also two high values of 50 and 100 leis.

ST. KITTS-NEVIS

Mr. Daniel Jacoby tells us that the current 1d value, No. 41, is to be changed in color from deep violet to red. This follows the change of the 1½d from red to fawn, which happened last year.

SPAIN—Offices in Morocco

Lesgor News Reel reports the new 20c violet postage stamp of Spain, Alfonso type but new portrait, has been overprinted "CORREO ESPANOL MARREUCOS" in two lines for use in this colony.

SUDAN

Gibbons' Stamp Monthly advises that a new air stamp is under consideration, the first one for this country.

UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA

Champions Monthly Bulletin chronicles another value in the re-engraved series of 1930, similar to the 1926 issue:

A5 ½p dark green and black
A6 ½p dark green and black.

ZANZIBAR

Gibbons' Stamp Monthly tells of a new and locally produced series of postage due labels. While the status of these is still doubtful, yet they have been postally used in a regular way and will probably be cataloged. They are type set, printed in black on colored papers and rouletted. Values are 1, 2, 3, 6, 9, 12, 15, 18, 20, 21, 25, 31, 50, and 75c, certainly enough values to provide for all possible needs.

EDITORIALS

A TWO YEAR OLD This number of Linn's Weekly Stamp News ends the second volume of 52 numbers. This is the 104th consecutive weekly issue of this paper and without question the publishers have set an enviable record in Philatelic Journalism in its production.

In the 104 weeks that this paper has been produced it has never missed an issue, every weekly issue has been deposited in the post-office for distribution to our readers on schedule time. The greatest variation being but about two hours time from noon each Saturday. However in the past four or five weeks a change in the day of mailing has been made and the paper is now delivered to the post-office on Friday afternoon at 5 p. m. Through this earlier mailing many readers within 500 miles of Columbus receive their papers Monday and the delivery has been speeded up all along the line.

The first volume of this paper contained a total of 536 pages, the present volume which ends with this number contains 740 pages and the volume to start with our issue for November 1, should contain an even greater number.

Linn's Weekly was started with the belief that there was room in America for more than one Weekly Stamp Paper. We believed also that collectors of stamps were entitled to a better paper than has been available to them heretofore.

We are working steadily toward the goal which will permit the production of such a paper as we have had in mind.

With a country as large as this one we believe that a weekly stamp paper can and should maintain a circulation of at least 25,000 copies weekly. Even that number would reach but a small percentage of the stamp collectors and nothing can help our hobby so much as a weekly stamp paper in the hands of every stamp collector every week. It is for this reason that we do not hesitate to ask our readers to introduce this publication to their friends. The subscription price is within the reach of every school boy as well as the wealthy collector and it is from the small "acorns" that the sturdy oaks have grown.

It should be apparent to everyone of our readers that we are giving more than our share in offering this publication at the low price of 25 cents per year. Will you not do your part by taking the subscription money of your friends and mailing it to us.

ARIZONA PHILATELIST IS the name signed to a letter addressed to our office and which criticized the article on the A. P. S. Convention by Mr. W. H. Barnum of Cleveland. Arizona Philatelist did not give a mail address and we have in our hands a letter from Mr. Barnum for delivery to this gentleman if he will step forward and give his address.

WE ARE GLAD THAT THE AIR route through Columbus was not opened on the date originally announced as the news was so late that few had an opportunity to get covers in for the event. The postponement of the date allowed for another call for covers with a few more days time and those who could not get in on the first call have come strong on this second call.

OVER TWO MONTHS AGO Linn's Weekly announced the big shift on the current 30c U. S. stamps. We note that Mr. John W. Nicklin writer of U. S. Notes for Mr. Powers Stamp News has just learned of this remarkable variety and has written it up in the latest issue of that paper. Better send us a quarter for a subscription John and get the news on time.

DO NOT OVERLOOK OUR birthday celebration announcement on the inside of the first page of this issue of the Weekly. When we throw a party it is a real party and we can entertain just about 500 of our readers who are active enough to hurry.

When Answering Ads. Mention Linn's

as well as the comment following is fresh from Fresno.

M. R. advises tis well that the Athol error did not find CO slipped in between AL and HOL, for then the prohibition officers would be after the poor buro fans for having IT in their possession. Wouldn't it be tough if one could not transport his album to the convention; or had his car confiscated for taking the collection to a club meeting.

Epidemic of "NO PERIODS" Continues on

A last minute letter from Mr. Lamson offers the following unusual information.

New York, N. Y., coils 1½, 2, 3c. No period after "Y" of N. Y. Color would indicate a very late printing.

A good glass revealed no trace of period.

Mr. Lamson writes an interesting bit about plate breaks with reference to their scarcity. Set up errors such as the Athol and the Sacramento no period varieties occurring in the coils would appear once on each of the four stereo-types or once in every 30 stamps. Whereas a plate break as a rule occurs only once in every 120 stamps or ¼th as plentiful as a setup error. However the setup errors carry the popularity as well as the demand.

Mr. Lamson offers a fine suggestion for good clear listing initiated with this weeks list at the top of the column. This plan will be carried out in the future.

Incorporated in the letter were a list of 94 new stamps the majority of which have only recently been listed. We found the above 10 brand new. For all of this we say Thank you Mr. Lamson and come again SOON.

We have a nice list of new ones for next week, too, get the pencil ready.

M. Ohlman is selling at auction the collection of Air Mail Covers, also U. S. and Foreign stamps of John W. Haarer. The collection contained a very fine lot of C. A. M. Covers, Routes 1 to 32, practically complete. The postage stamps offered contain numerous interesting and attractive lots and if you are not getting the Ohlman auction catalogs you would do well to get your name on their list.

AIR MAIL FLASHES

EDITED BY H. G. KINGDOM, CONNEAUT, OHIO

This department belongs to our readers and we ask you to send all information received to the Editor as soon as possible and same will be acknowledged

Transatlantic Mail

Capt. J. Errol Boyd and Lieut. Connor made a successful flight from Newfoundland to England in Levine's old Columbia, and now we hear from them that they carried ten pounds of mail bearing a special Newfoundland caribou stamp issued for the occasion. These will be real classic covers, and we shall be interested to hear more from any who obtained one of them.

Canadian Flight

On or about Oct. 27th, Canada will inaugurate an air mail service from Amos, Quebec, to Sisco, Quebec, and to commemorate this occasion will provide two different cachets for air mail. Covers should be marked plainly, "Via Air Mail, Amos-Sisco", or Sisco-Amos, and be franked with 5 cents Canadian postage, and then sent to the Supt. of Postal Service at Quebec, inclosing money order for the postage if you do not have the Canadian variety. Address your letters to yourself at your home address.

New Siamese Line

The Air Navigation Co. has been organized in Siam to operate a mail-passenger line between Rangoon and Hanoi, via Pitsanuloke, Udorn, Nagor, Pnom and Vinan, a distance of 932 miles across northern Siam. European mail should then be delivered in that country in twelve days.

Sydney to Surabaya, Java

According to reports the Royal Netherlands Air Navigation Co. are planning to start service on above line from Sydney, Australia, to Surabaya, Java. The planes will fly from Surabaya to Darwin, thence to Brisbane and Sydney, in about four days.

Postponed

Opening of service on CAM No. 34 scheduled for Oct. 15th has been postponed to October 25th, so that soon after you read this your covers should begin to arrive. We look for large volumes of mail on this route as many cities will try to make a record. However we believe that these two Transcontinental Routes will furnish the most interesting covers yet flown on the CAM's.

Endurance Covers

Sid Rosenblatt writes me that the N. Y.—New Jersey Endurance Flight mail is safe. Those covers were carried 15 days on that flight before it failed, and now the same covers will be carried on a new endurance flight backed by the American Legion and Queens Co. N. Y. Chamber of Commerce. So that if these come through, you will have a brand new combination—A Double Endurance Flight cover.

Coste-Bellonte Covers

The last of the Coste-Bellonte Good Will Tour covers have now been received and these thirty odd covers brought forth some very nice cachets, as expected, and are a nice memento of this tour of the celebrated French Fliers. Wonder if you thought to get a cover from N. Y. Oct. 17th, the day they sailed for France.

Byrd at Saginaw

Rear Admiral Byrd's visit to Saginaw, Mich., on Dec. 9th, on his lecture tour will provide a cachet by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and you may send your covers to Kenneth Tallmade, Temple Theater, Saginaw.

Dedication

Armistice Day seems popular for these events

Nov. 11—The Municipal Airport at Durant, Okla., will be dedicated.

Nov. 11-13—Meridan, Miss., airport will be dedicated.

Nov. 11—Salisbury, N. C., will dedicate. Send to Chamber of Commerce.

Nov. 11—San Benita, Texas, Airport will be dedicated. Send to J. E. Bell, Manager.

Yampa, Colo., and Madera, Cal., are both reported about ready to dedicate their fields. Better chance covers right now.

Little Rock, Ark., Chamber of Commerce are holding covers for dedication which date is not set;

also Russellville, Ark. is reported nearly ready for dedication.

Bendix Airport at South Bend,

Ind., is a private airport, and Chamber of Commerce returns covers. Received wrong information regarding Painesville, Ohio, although their airport has not been dedicated.

FAM No. 10 Delayed

Regarding the opening of this route the P. O. Dept. says: Due to present conditions affecting international air mail service in South America, the inauguration of service on the route from Paramaribo, Dutch Guiana, to Santos, Brazil, which was to have taken place Oct. 23 has been deferred, and notice will be given later of the actual beginning of this service. Any letters already posted for transmission by the first flight will be retained for dispatch by the first flight when it is made.

Canal Zone Air Stamps

It is reported that Canal Zone is planning a new issue of Air Mail stamps, and may use a design similar to the first flight cachet which was used on mail to U. S. in February, 1929. Possibly as many as four denominations, having a special size will be included in this series.

Panama to Bogota

The Scadta company is considering operating a non-stop plane from Panama to Bogota, Columbia, and if so, will likely carry mail, and be able to make in 50 minutes a trip which now takes nine hours by train.

Received

Cover from B. D. Smith bearing the Kings Mountain, N. C. printed cachet of Oct. 7th. and remailed from Wilmington, N. C. on occasion of its Bi-Centennial Pageant on Oct. 9-10th with nice cachet.

Post Cards postmarked on board U. S. Navy Destroyers Cole and J. Fred Talbot, which visited Wilmington on Navy Day, both of which were also carried on flight by the Coastal Airways.

Sid Rosenblatt sends a special printed cover of Welcome of New York to Coste & Bellonte on their return Oct. 10th and no doubt Sid has extra duplicates if any readers desire them.

Oct. 9th. Newton, Kansas, Chamber of Commerce sponsored an experimental flight of air mail to Wichita, Kans. and cover from John B. Heffelfinger has nice cachet and many autographs.

Pilot Autographs

On Oct. 1st. by drawing, J. W. Stoutzenburg awarded the Lindbergh letter to Milton Laforge and numerous other pieces to winners and J. W. writes that the work of obtaining the pilot autographs is going forward and will soon be completed.

THAT MATTACHVSETS SEALE

Dear Mr. Linn:—

I want to congratulate you on your "Mattachvsets Bay Colony" seal and the letter accompanying it. There have been no collectors that we know of who have had interest enough to get this information in this form or to search for any explanation of the motto on the scroll.

Most, seemingly all, have calmly remarked that the historic device "looked like H—" or some other equally pertinent phrase, and with a wallop at the engraver, a second swipe at the committee and a third including any and all concerned in the production, they have dismissed the whole thing as a bit of "bo-loney" (Al. Smith's style).

Seemingly the facts of history, its adaptability to the tercentenary of this area, and a few minor matters mean nothing in such criticisms.

I suppose a few of the purists would have liked the committee to edit the design by putting the rim words into good English, cutting out the scroll, clothing the Indian, shearing the feather on the arrow, and all that.

No one would have had the temerity to criticize the stamp if these things had been committed to the "artistic" tastes of our self-appointed critics, because it would then have been a "Thing of beauty and a joy forever" (Maybe).

Its value is historical, not pictorial, I admit; but even so this fact is evident. Most all of the sour stomached critics, talked out of turn. I vote you "Publicly Thank" Mr. Frederick W. Cook, the secretary of the commonwealth, for his letter and the history thus given to the collectors on this issue.

The seal is another evidence of the fact that Linn's is at least interested in the facts.

Yours, F. L. Coes.

Several hundred of the large print reproductions of this seal on fine antique paper have already been sent out to readers who have sent for them. We still have a quantity and will print more if necessary. A copy is free to any subscriber who will enclose an addressed envelope with a 2c stamp for postage on same. Copies mounted on a colored mount are offered at 10c each or free with a new subscription.

FERRARO NOT GUILTY

October 11, 1930

LINPRINT,
18-20 E. Chestnut St.,
Columbus, Ohio.

Gentlemen:

On October 8, 1930, in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, the undersigned successfully defended Mr. Rocco L. Ferraro, of Philadelphia, against the charge of using a fictitious name in a scheme to defraud through the United States mails,—characterized in your issue of LINN'S WEEKLY STAMP NEWS of July 26, 1930, as, "The most carefully planned stamp crime of the twentieth century."

My client was completely vindicated by the jury, who returned a verdict of not guilty on all three counts in the indictment.

He assures me that he now intends, and always has intended, to see that his creditors are paid in full.

His many friends would thank you to give his acquittal as much publicity as was given his accusation.

Very truly yours,
HENRY D. O'CONNOR.

OREGON CLUB ACTIVE

The Oregon Stamp Society, A. P. S. Branch No. 68 held regular meeting at the Multnomah hotel in Portland, Oregon, Tuesday evening, October 7th at 8 p. m. with Dr. Edward Hirstel presiding and nearly thirty member and non-member collectors present. After routine matters were attended to those present were entertained looking over Dr. Hirstel's remarkable collections of United States and Colonies and B. N. A. and Mr. Valdemar Liddell's odd and interesting collection of early U. S. cancellations, one of the most complete in the west. Mr. B. J. Bouricius also displayed an interesting Airmail cover collection including one carried on the Graf Zeppelin's recent Latin-American tour. Circuit books from the A. P. S. Rutherford and Saturday Afternoon Clubs provided some space fillers for a number of the members. Mr. Charles R. Smith, now of Vancouver, Washington, and formerly of the Rubber City Stamp Club, Akron, Ohio, was welcomed as a visitor and new members were added to the rolls. Mr. Bouricius also told of his recent visit in Denver and extended greetings on behalf of Mr. H. A. Davis, genial Secretary of the A. P. S.

FINDS BUSINESS GOOD

Possibly other dealers would be interested in a secret. We do not violate any confidence when we quote from a letter of Murray J. Rice of Alfred, N. Y. Mr. Rice is a dealer who has been specializing in Air Mail issues and he writes under date of October 13—"I am finding business good in spite of the 'hard times'—Perhaps it is because I have been going after it more this fall". Perhaps, that is the secret for good business and if it will be of value to any others we are glad to pass it on. Mr. Rice reports very satisfactory results from our paper and is using a page in this issue. Mr. Rice believes in pictures as can be seen by this advertisement.

While speaking of page advertisements we want to call your attention to the two page advertisement of Y. Souren & Co., in our last week's issue. If you lack anything in Germany, look up this advertisement, as it is all there and offered in an interesting manner.

CHICAGO NEWS

A new firm of major importance has just sent out its announcement cards. Stamp Imports, Inc., with a fine office on the 15th floor of 7 South Dearborn Street has opened its doors as exclusive dealers in the postage and air post stamps of Latin America. They are prepared to handle a counter and mail order trade in these popular lines.

Another firm which has already proved its standing is Chicago Stamp Auctions, Inc. They held their first auction recently in which some 1200 lots brought over $3,600 net, with a very good average realization price. More than two hundred mail bids were received, and over fifty bidders were present on the floor. Their next sale comes Nov. 14th. The calibre of the firm may be judged by the fact that its officers are Douglas P. Ball, Alex A. Cohen and C. J. Rose, well known names to philately in this country. Offices are at 30 North LaSalle Street. From such indications we would judge that the stamp trade is in an extremely healthy condition.

The Postage Stamp Club is making extensive and elaborate preparations for its Philatelic Fall Exhibit, to be held here Nov. 10 to 16th. A large number of entries is already assured. The place has not yet been selected, but will be in one of Chicago's largest hotels. Two or three of these are bidding for the exhibit and the selection will be announced very shortly.

One of the most interesting entries in what might be called the novelty class will be a hand made volume prepared by Max Barth of Chicago, in which he has prepared some unique exhibits showing how history may be illustrated on stamps. A complete description of this book would be impossible, as it contains two hundred 18x24 inch pages, each an elaborate exhibit in itself.

POSTAL MARKINGS

The above is the title of the new Official Journal of the International Postal Marking Society which is being edited by Mr. H. P. Piser, for members of the new Society.

The sheet is a four page paper devoted to society matters and news about postal markings of every kind on mail of all ages.

Collectors interested in Postal Markings "Cancellations", should write Mr. Piser at 131 Silver Lake Road, Staten Island, N. Y., a sample copy will doubtless be sent to any interested party.
